Buster Gootee, 28, Shot in Abdomen

The Messenger 12-31-53

Moorman—Harold K. (Buster) Gootee, 28, Central City, was seriously wounded in the abdomen about 3 a.m. Dec. 24 when he and two other Central City men shot into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Bullock.

State Policeman Phillip Stone gave this account of the shooting: Gootee, Bryant Adler and J. C. Hardin went to the Bullock home and shot through the window and on the side of the house. Mr. Bullock's 18-year-old son, J. I. Bullock, shot at them through the door with a .22 rifle wounding Gootee in the stomach. He said he saw him fall and then saw two others pick him up and take him to a car.

He then called Policeman Stone, who arrested Adler and Hardin at 11 a.m. the same day on a charge of banding and confederating. When arraigned before Judge Harry Bohannon they were held under $2,000 bonds and are still in jail awaiting action of the grand jury next week. No examining trial was held. Gootee is still in the Muhlenberg Community Hospital, and will be served with the warrant later. He underwent surgery the day he was shot.

No charge was placed against Bullock.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, their son and daughter, Mrs. Mary Bullock Adler, the estranged wife of Adler, were sleeping when the firing commenced.

Death of William Green.

William L. Green, born at Danville, Ky., 1825, died at Poynette, Wis., July 28, 1903. He married Susan M., daughter of James Weir, of Greenville; two children survives him, Wm. L. Green, of St. Louis, and Harriet W. Green, of Poynette.

At this time, while we are congratulating ourselves that we have again sacrificed much in the cause of education, comes the intelligence of the death of William L. Green, the man who gave all of his own, and also his wife's fortune in rearing up the school buildings which we now call our own. Not only those but other school houses and churches in this county were built by him, for educational purposes.

In a measure he was assisted by Edward R. Weir, Sr. who did much to assist him. Besides the money he lost in the work, he gave more than one year of solid work in the interest of the institution.

Mr. Green lived and died a poor man. Probably today there are not twenty men in the county who, if they were to hear mentioned his death, would remember who he was, or what he had done for the county, yet it is all well with him now, if the Lord has said to him: "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things. I will make thee ruler over many things." Record Aug. 6, 1903

Horse Trainer Dies in Accident At Fairgrounds

Times Argus (Central City, Ky)
July 19, 1951.

T-A 7-19-51

V. L. (Lawrence) Greenlee, 77, was fatally injured at 10:45 a.m. at the Central City Fairgrounds when a trotting horse he was training broke and jumped on the rail throwing Mr. Greenlee into the infield.

He died at 12:30 p.m. in the Muhlenberg Community Hospital from a fractured skull. Other injuries suffered included a dislocated left arm and chest injuries.

Mr. Greenlee was hurt when his personally-owned horse, Dr. Harris, broke in the home stretch, jumped on the fence, leaving the cart hanging on the fence and throwing him into the infield.

Dr. A. P. Hannephin saw the accident and reached him in a short time carrying him to Dr. Richard E. Davis' office. He was then removed to the hospital in Greenville where he died.

Mr. Greenlee was a harness horse driver and trainer with many years' experience. He had been training horses here for around eight years.

Just before the accident he had driven Dr. Harris one mile and had completed another lap in 1:06 without hobbles on the horse.

Others witnessing the fatal accident included Earl Ralph and B. A. Hickey.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Kelly Cemetery, Maceo, the Rev. E. P. Elliott, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Central City, officiating.

Mr. Greenlee had planned to leave Wednesday for Rockport, Ind., to run the horse in a harness race at the Spencer County fair. He was giving the animal its final workout before the race. He came to Central City about eight years ago from Booneville, Ind., and had become well known among horsemen of this section.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nannie Greelee, Maceo; a son, Spencer Greelee, Cannelton, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. Mable Brown, Butler, Pa.

Rev. Arthur B. Gross, 83, World War I veteran, dies

T-A 10-12-77

Greenville - The Rev. Arthur B. Gross, 83, of Greenville, died Wednesday, Oct. 5, at 2:06 a. m. in Muhlenberg Community Hospital.

He was born in Athal, in Lee County, Sept. 15, 1894. He was a retired Presbyterian minister and served the Greenville Presbyterian Church for 36 years and nine months. He attended Berea and Buckhorn colleges and studied under Dr. Murdock and Dr. Gabbard. He taught at Buckhorn College before going to the Presbyterian Seminary in Louisville, where he graduated in 1924. He received an honorary doctor's degree from Centre College in Danville. His first church pastorate was at Columbia, Ky. where he served six years. He came to Greenville in January, 1930, and retired in 1966. He was a veteran of World War I.

He said once, "I planned all my life to study for the ministry." For a short time after returning to Kentucky from World War I, he taught school, after which he entered the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Louisville. While a student there, and as part of his training, he served as part-time pastor at Harrodsburg, Fisherville and Campbellsville while maintaining a 95 average in his studies. He graduated in 1924 and remained as pastor of the Campbellsville and Columbia churches until 1930 when he came to Greenville.

Mr. Gross was the beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Greenville for more than 36 years, retiring in 1966, only to spread his work thinner as he filled vacant pulpits in many churches.

He was always an ardent supporter of Boy Scouts and was a Scout leader soon after he came to Greenville.

Mr. Gross was head of The American Red Cross for many years when The Red Cross meant so much to the families of the men in service. It was through his untiring work the bloodmobile program came to Muhlenberg County, replacing the constant call for individual donors, when blood was badly needed. It was for his work with the bloodmobile program in August 1969 that Governor of Kentucky Louie B. Nunn presented him a Governor's Merit Award.

He was close to the heart of many people in Muhlenberg County churches where he had christened the babies, officiated at their weddings and comforted the families in their deaths in many cases. He will be long remembered by those whose lives he has touched.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lela Walker Gross; daughter, Mrs. Virginia Shutt of Greenville; son, Dr. Tommy Gross of Pensacola, Fla.; three grandchildren; sister, Mrs. Ellen Johnson of Detroit, Mich.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 3 p. m. in Greenville with the Rev. Orville Pearson in charge, assisted by the Rev. Paul Watson. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery in Greenville under the direction of Gary Funeral Home.
